

JUNE 2014

Baltimore • Los Angeles • Toronto
Chicago • Atlanta

How are local churches responding to immigrants, refugees and international students?

Featuring

- Case studies from churches in the U.S. and Canada
- Presentations by leaders with on-the-ground experience
- Table group discussions to encourage practical application and networking relationships; lunch included

Registration

Register online at MissioNexus.org.

- Individual: $45

Group Advantage for 2 or More

When you register with others from your church or organization:

- 2nd Individual: Free with Missio Nexus church or organization membership
- 3rd Individual or more: $35

If your church or organization is not already a member of Missio Nexus, you can join for $99.75 to receive group advantage registration rates, plus a full year of member benefits for 5 individuals on your staff or mission team.

Early Advantage by May 15

Register by May 15 to receive advance copies of case studies and complimentary resources prior to the event.

MEET THE PRESENTERS

This event will feature local church leaders and presenters.

	J.D. Payne • Pastor of Church Multiplication, The Church at Brook Hills in Birmingham, Alabama • Author of Strangers Next Door: Migration, Immigration and Mission
	Pastor Minho Song • Senior Pastor, Young Nak Korean Presbyterian Church of Toronto
	Steve Moore • President, Missio Nexus
	Casely Essamuah • Global Missions Pastor, Bay Area Community Church in Annapolis, Maryland • Advocate for Church Engagement, Missio Nexus

FREE DOWNLOAD

When you register for the Tour, download Immigrants in the US: A Missional Opportunity by Jenny Yang, available at MissioNexus.org.

PARTICIPANT RESOURCES

Tour participants will receive the following:

■ A special edition recorded webinar of “Evangelism and Church Planting Receptivity and Best Practices Among First Generation Immigrants” by Ed Stetzer, President of LifeWay Research, and Lizette Beard, Project Manager for LifeWay Research

■ A copy of Strangers Next Door: Migration, Immigration and Mission by J.D. Payne

TORONTO – JUNE 17

8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

The Peoples Church
374 Sheppard Ave. East, Toronto, ON M2N 3B6

IN PARTNERSHIP WITH

world relief™

THE PEOPLES CHURCH®

THANKS TO OUR SPONSORS

