

ONMB's Credentialing Questionnaire

Preamble:

The National Faith and Life Team (NFLT) has updated the Credentialing Questionnaire for use across Canada. The following is the ONMB version of this national policy.

Credentialing Overview and Expectations

Your request for credentialing means that you are seeking recognition by the Ontario Conference of Mennonite Brethren Churches (ONMB) that you are, and will continue to be, a spiritual leader within the Mennonite Brethren community. The Ontario Conference of Mennonite Brethren Churches believes that all spiritual leaders should be expected to live an exemplary Christian life in all aspects. All areas of a candidate's Christian walk and leadership may be examined as part of the credentialing application within the Ontario Conference of Mennonite Brethren Churches.

The following excerpt explaining the criteria and categories for ministry credentialing is taken from the "ONMB Credentialing Policy (Updated 2025)" (the full version describing eligibility, process, and the ending of credential status is available from the ONMB office).

The ONMB Minister Credential is bestowed on applicants who show clear evidence that they are:

1. *Living out a holistic and vibrant Christ-centred spiritual life
2. Demonstrating a clear commitment to affirm and live out the biblical and theological convictions recorded in the MB Confession of Faith as evidenced in their preaching, teaching, and life example.
3. Possessing ministry giftings that fit well their specific ministry role, and God-given wisdom appropriate to their ministry role and level of experience.
4. Living out a personal and ministry life consistent with the ONMB Code of Personal and Ministry Ethics for Credentialed Leaders (2021) and are willing to enter into an ongoing accountability relationship according to this code of ethics.

ONMB Credentialed Ministers are eligible for registration as "Ontario Religious Representatives" able to officiate at weddings. They may also be eligible for the CRA clergy-housing tax allowance depending on how their ministry role fits with CRA guidelines.

Every three years, all ONMB Credentialed Ministers must re-affirm in writing their on-going commitment to the Mennonite Brethren Confession of Faith and to the Code of Professional and Ministry Ethics.*

Credentialing Categories

Some credentialing candidates are excellent fits for their roles but do not have the leadership giftings, biblical and theological foundation, or ministry experience required for other ministry roles. As a result, ONMB has instituted three credentialing categories (Open; Specialized; Ordained) to recognize this diversity.

ONMB Minister—Open Credential

The Open Credential category indicates ONMB's highest level of endorsement and affirmation for service within the ONMB Conference and is given to those who demonstrate a mature spiritual life, a deep biblical and theological foundation consistent with the MB Confession of Faith, a diverse and adaptable reservoir of ministry skills, and overall relational and interpersonal wisdom gleaned from significant experience in ministry. (There are times when the ONMB Faith and Life Team [PFLT] will affirm individuals with the Open Credential even though not all of these areas are equally fully developed. This is normally done in situations where the trajectory is positive for the individual, and the ministry context provides supports for this growth to happen.)

Individuals with the Open Credential are free to pursue any suitable leadership or pastoral position within the ONMB Conference.

ONMB Minister—Specialized Credential

The Specialized Credential category indicates affirmation of the individual for an associate or other specific ministry role (e.g., Children's Ministry, Youth/Student Ministry, Worship, Chaplain, etc.). The Specialized Credential requires the same indication of spiritual maturity, integrity, relational health, and alignment with our MB Confession of faith as the Open Credential category, but it recognizes that not all applicants are called or gifted for lead or teaching pastoral leadership. Others may need further growth and mentoring before they are ready for the full responsibilities of congregational leadership. Ministers with a Specialized Credential would normally be expected to be actively supervised and mentored by Open Credential holders from within their church pastoral team.

An individual with a Specialized Credential is free to pursue a ministry role anywhere within the ONMB family that is substantially the same as that in which they were credentialed (e.g., Children's Ministry, Youth/Student Ministry, etc.).

Those receiving a Specialized Credential designation, but later desiring an Open Credential designation, can apply for this change with the endorsement of their ministry supervisor or appropriate church leadership after a 24-month period from their prior credentialing interview. The candidate should include a 2-3 page document that explains why they are seeking this new status, rationale for how they would now fit this status, and any revisions to their Credentialing Questionnaire that they feel are relevant. The ONMB PFLT and the PFLT Chair will examine the application for completeness, and will help prepare the candidate for an interview with the FT. The FT will decide the length and format of this interview.

ONMB Minister—Ordination (For more information on ordination, see "Ordination: Principles & Practice.")

Ordination is initiated at the local church level and affirmed and endorsed by the Provincial Conference. As a result, ordination is at the initiation and invitation of a local ONMB congregation rather than from a candidate or from ONMB. While the PFLT will hold an interview with the candidate and needs to affirm the candidate for this status, ordination is viewed as a congregation-based endorsement and does not indicate a higher level of designation or authority within the ONMB community beyond that of Open credential. Ordained leaders within the ONMB community are subject to the same expectations and requirements as other credentialed holders. While some groups see ordination as a life-long status, we consider ordination to be a limited status that could end in the same ways as all other ONMB credentials....

A ONMB congregation that desires ordination status for one of its pastors must submit a request to the ONMB Conference Minister. Ordination is only available for Open Credential holders who have served in a leadership role within that church for a minimum of two years. Requests will be evaluated by the PFLT on a case-by-case basis. Upon approval, the ONMB Conference Minister will co-ordinate a service of ordination together with the local congregation.

Recognition for Partial Completion of Credentialing Process

ONMB Minister—Conditional Status

There may be situations where the PFLT deems that a credentialing candidate will be a good fit for credentialing, but the candidate still needs to complete a few steps prior to them being eligible for one of the three credentialing categories (Specialized, Open, Ordained). These additional steps could involve a re-writing of part(s) of the Credentialing Questionnaire, participating in additional educational opportunities, or even working on an unresolved interpersonal conflict. Conditional Status is a step on the way to successful credentialing but does not confer credentialing status on a candidate. Conditional Status should normally be given only in situations where the required actions would not exceed a timeline of twelve months. Conditional Status is intended only for candidates who appear to be good fits for credentialing and close to completion. It is also intended to be a temporary status with clear timelines for the resolution of the issues involved.

Code of Personal and Ministry Ethics for ONMB Credential Holders (Approved March 2021)

Preamble

Credential holders working or associated with the Ontario Conference of Mennonite Brethren Churches (ONMB) and its associated ministry agencies are spiritual leaders who are expected to hold to a high level of personal and ministry ethics.

This code of Christian conduct outlines these expectations. All ONMB credential holders must make a commitment to live accordingly, and renew this commitment every three (3) years as part of the Mennonite Brethren Covenant renewal process.

The following commitments emerge from our personal and collective calling to love God with all our being and to love our neighbours as ourselves. The Mennonite Brethren tradition emphasizes a commitment to righteousness, peacemaking and reconciliation, holy living, justice, helping those in need, and the balancing of personal freedom with sacrificial love for others.

All MB Credential holders are accountable to their local leaders but also to leaders at the Provincial MB Conference level. These provincial leaders share a commitment to love God and neighbour as expressed in this same Code of Personal and Ministry Ethics. They are committed to assist, support, and resource all Credential holders seeking to live out these personal and ministry ethics. When Credential holders fail to uphold their commitments, provincial and local leaders desire to deal with each failure as redemptively as possible. However, this redemptive desire does not rule out a careful investigation of the failure, the possible loss of one's Pastoral Credential status, and the removal of a Credential holder from a ministry role.

In My Personal Life, by the grace of God and the empowerment of the Holy Spirit, I commit to...

- Maintain an ongoing, vibrant, and healthy spiritual relationship with God through the Holy Spirit.
- Ensure proper self-care spiritually, physically, and relationally in order to live a healthy life as God intended and to minister effectively for the longer term in my ministry setting.
- In whatever life circumstance (singleness, marriage, parenthood), demonstrate covenantal love and care for those in my closest circle of relationships (e.g., parents, spouse, children, etc. as applicable).
- Live my personal life in a way that is consistent with the commitments made below for my ministry life.

In My Ministry Life, by the grace of God and the empowerment of the Holy Spirit, I commit to...

- Live out the centrality of Jesus, the gospel, and God's Kingdom in all areas of my ministry life publicly and privately, including inviting all people to become disciples of Jesus.
- Place the well-being and mission of the congregation (or equivalent ministry group) I am serving and the well-being of each individual within my sphere of ministry above my own personal interests. This rules out using my ministry setting for personal, political, or financial gain beyond the terms of my employment agreement. It also involves the full disclosure to my ministry leaders of any financial gifts or other perks offered to me because of my ministry role, and the submission to the local leaders' wisdom regarding these gifts.

- Demonstrate respect and dignity toward all persons, showing concern for all members in my sphere of ministry, respecting best practices regarding confidentiality, and stewarding well the authority and trust given to me by avoiding harassment, harmful discrimination, abuse, sexual/professional misconduct, and verbal or physical intimidation.
- Teach, encourage, and live out in my ministry and personal life the biblical, theological, and ethical guidance articulated in the MB Confession of Faith. This includes but is not limited to:
 - 1) Living out a commitment to the importance of Jesus' way of peacemaking by pursuing healthy interpersonal relationships in my life, and demonstrating a willingness to engage in conflict resolution procedures (as per biblical models) with individuals or with the larger congregation as needed.
 - 2) Living out a commitment to generosity and stewardship of possessions, time, and giftings that reflects love, compassion, and a desire to support God's work locally and globally.
 - 3) Living out a commitment to honesty and integrity by avoiding lying, cheating, financial impropriety, plagiarism, and all other deceptions and misrepresentations of my ministry activities and/or theological commitments. It also involves the reporting to my ministry leaders of any possible conflicts of interest that might arise, and the ruling out of theft or the misuse/destruction of property belonging to others.
 - 4) Living out a commitment to spoken, written, and social media communication that reflects my love for God and neighbour. This commitment rules out gossip and slander, as well as language that is racist, sexist, abusive, vulgar, obscene, or degrading. It also rules out the use of or the sharing of written or visual materials that are degrading, dehumanizing, exploitative, hateful, gratuitously violent, and/or pornographic.
 - 5) Living out my sexuality in the way of Jesus' Kingdom by reserving sexual expressions of intimacy exclusively for the context of covenantal marriage between a man and a woman. This also means avoiding any communication or actions (e.g., solemnizing or officiating in a marriage/civil ceremony) which is in conflict with this understanding of God's vision for the expression of human sexual intimacy.
 - 6) Living out my commitment to being filled by Jesus' Spirit without drunkenness, drug-induced states, or harmful addictions. The only exceptions here would involve medications deemed by qualified professionals to be medically necessary to treat any existing health conditions.
 - 7) Living out respect for the governing authorities by contributing positively to my community and by submitting to the local, provincial, and national laws in place (as long as they are not inconsistent with the ethics for disciples of Jesus as articulated in Scripture).
- Demonstrate a commitment to ongoing professional development in my ministry life, so that I can continue to grow in the gifts that God has given me for the benefit of the Body of Christ.
- Demonstrate a commitment to active participation in our denominational family (local, provincial, national) by attending gatherings and serving as able.
- Demonstrate respect and a willingness to submit to the final decision making of the congregation (or equivalent ministry group) I am serving, its leadership, and the leadership of the provincial and national denominational bodies. This includes, but is not limited to, decisions regarding the termination of my ministry role and my credentialing status. It also includes submission to the wisdom of those leaders regarding the level of contact and involvement I should have with those in my prior ministry setting.
- Demonstrate transparency and full disclosure to my local ministry leaders and Provincial Conference Minister (or equivalent) when I fail in the commitments I have expressed here.
