

THE KING'S HOUSE - Parry Sound

HOUSE LEADER Internship - Weekend Relief

One year contract

About

The King's House (TKH) is a new project in Parry Sound, Ontario. God has given us a vision to launch a transitional discipleship house to see men be free from addictions and homelessness in Parry Sound. We at The King's House firmly believe that Jesus can break the chains of addiction and end the spiral of homelessness. TKH provides a Jesus-centered community while focusing on independent living to transition the clients into a sober, faith-oriented lifestyle. TKH currently has a five-bedroom house and can accommodate and disciple five men at a time. The purpose of the internship is to be open to learn in an intensive faith community setting and grow as a leader. This position will bless, challenge, deepen faith and provide joy. We are looking for a teachable, flexible, believer in Christ who is willing to count the cost for the messy and beautiful Kingdom work.

Purpose of Position

The house leader intern would live-in at The King's House part-time on the weekends for the duration of the contract (Friday and Saturday overnights). This job entails weekend relief and provides the full-time House Leader much needed rest. The main purpose of the house leader is to provide ongoing discipleship to Jesus Christ during the client's stay. By the power of the Holy Spirit and the direction of the house leader, each client would feel the presence of Jesus, understand the power of Jesus and hear the proclamation of Jesus.

Duties and Responsibilities

- Reside in the King's House part-time on weekends - Friday 8pm - Sunday 8pm (total of 48hrs each week). Routine operational duties may include:
 - Provide a mature godly presence, stability and peace for the house
 - Intercede in prayer for the clients in the house

- Oversee and contribute to the organization and cleanliness of the house
- Communicate and liaison with on-call supervisor when necessary
- Document incident and/or relapse reports when necessary
- Debrief the weekend with the full-time House Leader
- Deliver weekend discipleship programming for the clients
 - Lead daily devotions and prayer
 - Provide accountability for clients to build personal growth and faith
 - Foster Jesus-centered conversations with the clients
 - The weekend schedule will be preset in advance by the House Leader/Executive Director. Weekends tend to be more relaxed, flexible and less scheduled.

Additional

- Weekends off/vacation will be pre-scheduled and agreed upon with the Executive Director and House Leader
- Intern can take seven pre-approved weekends off during the duration of the contract
- Reports to the House Leader and Executive Director for accountability and performance
- A driver's license is an asset
- Addictions/mental health accreditation is an asset
- During this process, you will have the opportunity to deepen your own faith and get to know Jesus Christ more as you learn to trust him

Compensation

Salary - One year Internship

- 45 weekends - $20,000 total salary
- Food/Meals while in the house are provided
